Why Read Shakespeare?

Speaker: Robin Williams

Saturday, November 8

(10am-11am)

Yes, the plays were written for performance, but there are indications that the playwright considered them to be works of literature as well. Learn a number of reasons why you might want to start reading (and re-reading) the plays for yourself. If you feel Shakespeare was gifted, you don't know the half of it until you spend time with his written word. You'll come away with a deeper appreciation of this playwright's narrative art.

"Over-protective Fathers, Know-it-All Servants, Cowardly Generals ..." Saturday, November 8
(5pm-6pm)

Speaker: Michael J. Hume

Times may change, but people, apparently, do not. Shakespeare went right to the source and redefined the comic tradition: drawing from bawdy Roman Comedies to the outrageous Commedia Dell' Arte, even the Mystery Plays of the medieval Church. Be prepared to read aloud and compare the Bard's texts alongside his "borrowed" inspirations. And while exploring the birth of clowns and clowning, you just may be asked to reveal what's behind the mask of the greatest clown of all...yourself! (Text will include excerpts from the 2009 Season.)

Shakespeare at OSF 2009: Sunday, November 9
Macbeth: Nothing Is But What Is Not (9:30am-11am)

Speaker: Robin Williams

What bloody man is that? And what's up with the Porter and his blathering on about "equivocation"? How can a day be both foul and fair? Why three? What's up with horses eating each other? Why is everyone getting unsexed? Why do they keep talking about clothes? What's with those doctors? And what's a "Thane" anyway? You already know the plot of Macbeth, so let's gain a richer understanding of this brilliant work by looking at these and other motifs that run through the play and unify the themes.

PERFORMANCE: Macbeth Sunday, November 9
Performers: Christine Albright and Michael J. Hume (5pm-6pm)

Join us for a dark and winding trip into a world of witches, kings, power, murder, and marriage. What can three actors do with a trunk of costumes and props, themselves, and Macbeth? Watch as Michael, Christine, and Sarah take on this Shakespearean tragedy.

Macbeth: Post-performance Q&A with the Actors Sunday, November 9
Speakers: Christine Albright and Michael J. Hume (6pm-6:30pm)

After their performance, the actors will return to the stage to take questions from the audience. Fire away with questions about the production, interpretation, staging, or anything you'd like to know!

Bringing Shakespeare's Words to Life — Monday, November 10
The Actor's Process (5pm-6pm)

Speaker: Christine Albright

You usually only get to see the final product in our OSF productions, but here's your chance to be an actor or at least learn more about the actor's process! Together with Chris, you will explore Much Ado About Nothing's famous bickering lovers, Beatrice and Benedick, in two of their most famous scenes. You'll start with some "table work," and together with Chris, you will delve into the poetry of Shakespeare's text, mining the language for meaning, and the intentions of the characters. Then you'll move from your seat to your feet, to try your hand at staging a scene. It's your chance to breathe life into the beautiful words you know and love.

Although Shakespeare uses the word "humour" 136 times, not once does it refer to something being funny. The humours are four bodily fluids that to the Elizabethans influenced the psyche. Too much or too little of one or the other humours puts you out of whack and affects your personality. Take a quiz to discover how well your humours, and those of your friends, balance and and which Shakespearean characters you most resemble!

Death: The Undiscovered CountrySaturday, November 15Speaker: Robin Williams*

(9:30am-10:30am)

In the fifteenth century, the Black Death wiped out a huge number of clergy, so people needed to learn the proper way to die if there were no churchmen around. Thus developed Ars Moriendi, the Art of Dying. By Shakespeare's time, ars moriendi was a way of life, which might be why we see death, near death, attempted death, or a semblance of death in every play. Explore Shakespeare's apparent thoughts on life endings and gain an understanding of his perspective on death.

Exciting New InitiativesSaturday, November 15Speaker: Claudia Alick*

(2pm-3:30pm)

Find out about OSF's exciting new initiatives including American Revolutions: The U.S. History Cycle, a 10-year initiative to create up to 50 new plays; the new Green Show highlighting a vibrant and diverse community of national and local performance artists including old favorites; and New Play Development which Bill Rauch views as a profound responsibility of this acting company. There will be ample time for your questions.

(This is called our Guaranteed Share program." NOTE: GS cabin assignments are generally done at time of ticket issuance, only — and are subject to change. You will be matched with members of the same gender, and we factor in age and geography where possible. Insight Cruises provides free earplugs to GS passengers on request. Guaranteed Shares are not always available in cabins with verandahs. Share Passengers who smoke are not to do so in the cabin, unless their roommate(s) specifically consents.

All others must have valid passports and any required visas when boarding the vessel. All travel documents such as passports, visas, proof of citizenship, etc., that are required for embarkation, disembarkation at the ports of call, and re-entry into the United States are the responsibility of the passenger. Non-U.S. citizens are asked to please check with government agencies, embassies or consulates to determine documentary requirements. You may be denied boarding without proper proof of citizenship.

Along with many thousands of American travelers, we rely on Zierer Visa Service for our visas (we are not affiliated with Zierer, we are simply happy customers).

SHAKESPEARE AT SEA PROGRAM CANCELLATIONS and REFUNDS: The Shakespeare at Sea Program fee is subject to the following cancellation fees: $95 if canceling before June 1, 2008; $195 if canceling from June 1, 2008 to August 1, 2008; $395 if canceling after August 1. These cancellation fees, however, can be applied to any future InSight Cruise!

CRUISE CANCELLATIONS, REFUNDS, INSURANCE and CHANGES: Any cancellation or any change of status (or request for a change in status) which relates to your booking must be transmitted, AS SOON AS POSSIBLE, to InSight Cruises in writing. After booking, a Cancellation Processing Fee of $95 per person will be assessed (but will be applied towards any future InSight Cruise); between 90 and 66 days before commencement of travel, the $600 per person deposit will be assessed; from 65–45 days before commencement of travel, 50% of the gross fare will be assessed; from 44–24 days before commencement of travel, 80% of the gross fare will be assessed; 23 days or less before commencement of travel, 100% of gross fare is assessed. After full or final payment date, all invoices will be subject to a minimum charge of $50 for any changes. To protect against cancellation penalties, Trip Cancellation & Interruption Insurance is available and strongly recommended. InSight Cruises provides access to this insurance; a Trip Insurance brochure \(from TripInsurance.com\) and brochure \(from Access America\) are included with your initial invoice. Holland America (HAL) also offers Trip Cancellation Protection: either the Standard Cancellation Protection Plan (CPP Standard) or the Platinum Cancellation Protection Plan (CPP Platinum Plan). Both of these plans are optional and must be paid for within 24 hours of booking or at time of deposit if booking after July 1, 2008. Trip Cancellation payments are not refundable. The CPP Platinum Plan is only available for U.S. and Canadian residents. (InSight Cruises prefers Access America [TripCare Deluxe product] or TripInsurance.com [Enhanced product] over the HAL CPP coverage for several reasons but mostly because not only is their coverage better but the burden is on you to notify HAL, in writing, at least 24 hours prior to the day of sailing – whereas you can notify Access America or TripInsurance.com up until six months after the trip and still retain full benefits. We prefer Access America for those over 65 as Access America is "first payor"; TripInsurance.com is, by and large, less expensive and offers, for $30 extra, trip cancellation or interruption due to unforeseen business reasons.) The signed Confirmation of Final Payment and Insurance Waiver is due in the InSight Cruises office upon issuance and no later than the final payment date. Travel documents will not be released and your booking is subject to cancellation unless we receive this paperwork.
