

IGUAZU FALLS - PRE-CRUISE TOUR

3 DAYS / 2 NIGHTS

People interested in visiting Iguazu, should stay 2 nights in this city and also 2 nights in Buenos Aires. The best itinerary would be connecting to Iguazu immediately after arrival in Buenos Aires, then return on the third day to join the rest of the group.

CUZCO/MACHU PICCHU - POS-CRUISE TOUR

4 DAYS / 3 NIGHTS

Please note this package does not include the flights, because the best way to do it would be arranging all the flights together, all the way from the US into Argentina, out of Chile, into Peru and back to the US. I would work on the quote for the people interested separately; depending on they're needs to have the most effective itinerary and also the best price possible.

I have included 2 Package options, one staying at luxury hotel and the other at superior category hotels.
