

The Great Courses Travel #1

Patagonia (S. America) Cruise, Nov. 4th-17th, 2013

Explore the far horizons of science, health, and art while living the dream of rounding Cape Horn. Gather indelible images of the uttermost ends of the Earth in the company of thoughtful fellow travelers. Venture about South America's uniquely beautiful terrain with The Great Courses on The Great Courses Travel #1's cruise conference on Holland America's Veendam from Santiago, Chile to Buenos Aires, Argentina, November 4-17, 2013. An abundance of cultural, natural, and intellectual riches await you.

Embrace the elemental suspense of Patagonia. Discover the math secrets of games and puzzles with Dr. Arthur Benjamin. Thrive with lifelong wellness pointers from Dr. Anthony Goodman. Put ancient South American art in context with Dr. Diana McDonald. Build an understanding of architectural principles with Dr. Stephen Ressler. Delve into the terrain of South America with Dr. Michael Wyession.

You have pre- and post-cruise options to peer into the Devil's Throat at Iguazu Falls (a great wonder of the natural world), visit Easter Island or the Galapagos, or ascend Machu Picchu.

Savor South America with a friend. Intelligent fun beckons, and adventure calls on The Great Courses Travel #1. Please join us! We take care of the arrangements so you can relax and enjoy the natural and cultural splendor of South America.
